

CREATING SECURITY THROUGH EXCELLENCE

AHNA Consult is AHNA Group's consulting division, a global, single-solution security consultancy, solving our clients' problems and meeting their exacting requirements, through our uniquely collaborative approach and multi-disciplinary capabilities.

WHAT IS AHNA CONSULT?

AHNA Consult provides unique, specialist security & risk advisory services for our global portfolio of clients. Our team of subject matter experts consistently deliver tailored solutions to the highest standards, that address both immediate risks and long-term resilience.

We work internationally with corporate, commercial, construction, hospitality, infrastructure and UHNW clients, in both the private and government sectors.

HOW AHNA CONSULT WORKS

Our approach is entirely collaborative, we develop a deep understanding of our clients' requirements and how they align with their operating environment, risk landscape and business objectives.

The solutions we develop are risk-based, client-focused, intelligence-led & cost effective, delivered locally to international best practice & standards, within budgetary constraints and integrated seamlessly, to enhance our clients' operations and success.

CORE SERVICES

- Security needs analysis of corporate, UHNW residential, commercial, hospitality, industrial, and retail premises.
- Full security design services for refurbishment, enhancement and new construction projects.
- Strategic review of corporate security systems, business continuity plans and supply chain security.
- Physical penetration testing of security systems.
- Design of enterprise security risk management programmes.
- Design & development of insider risk programmes.
- Design of corporate and private travel risk management programmes.
- Virtual Head of Security service.